

shall not be carried out, and the funds appropriated in this Act for such project shall not be used for other purposes.

Sec. 13. Subject to any transfers and changes between appropriations as permitted in Sections 7, 8, and 9 of this Act, the appropriations for Capital Improvements made in this Act shall be expended only for specific projects set out in this Act. Construction of all Capital Improvement projects enumerated in this Act shall be commenced on or before December 31, 1968; if construction on such project or projects has not been commenced on or before December 31, 1968, then the appropriation for such project or projects shall revert to the original source and no transfer to other projects shall be allowed, provided; that subject to the approval of the Governor and the Advisory Budget Commission this deadline may be extended when such action is justified by a real emergency.

Sec. 14. Any unencumbered balances remaining in various Capital Improvement funds of 1959, 1961, 1963, 1965 appropriated for construction and equipment shall revert to the original source on December 31, 1968, and no transfer to other projects may be allowed, provided; that subject to the approval of the Advisory Budget Commission this deadline may be extended when in the opinion of the Governor and the Advisory Budget Commission such action is justified by a real emergency.

Sec. 15. The several departments, institutions, and agencies of the State are fully authorized and empowered to make application or applications to any agency or agencies of the United States of America for grant-in-aid for the construction of the several projects mentioned in this Act and within the scope and intent of the projects enumerated in this Act and to expend the same in accordance with the terms of such grants and in conformity with the laws of this State.

Sec. 16. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 17. This Act shall be in full force and effect July 1, 1967.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 4th day of July, 1967.
